I work with negative formats from 35 mm up to 8/10 inch sheet film. All films are developed individually. This means that in processing the films, both customer requests and film-specific needs are taken into account (push and hold).

All films are developed on a Jobo ATL in rotation using one shot development. The advantage here is: films are developed in fresh chemicals, as opposed to automatic batch processing machines that work with recycled chemicals and which are quite limited in catering for specific requirements.

Developers which are used:
Fuji Hunt Film X-Press Processing Kit C-41, as one Shot development
